

How much does a solar panel maintenance cost?

Since average yearly maintenance can cost around $180, it's a good idea to budget and save for cleaning and repair costs. While cleaning and some maintenance can be done with a DIY approach, contacting professionals is best to ensure the panels are properly taken care of.

How often should a solar panel be cleaned?

Solar panels require very little maintenance, especially if they are on a tilt, as rain can wash away any debris. It is generally recommended that you perform solar panel cleaning between two and four times per year. Take extreme care when cleaning. Clean from the ground, as climbing around on your roof can be dangerous.

Should you hire a solar panel specialist?

Hiring a qualified specialist is safer because many solar power systems are on the roof. The good news is that your maintenance costs will be low even if you hire an expert. According to Home Advisor, the typical yearly maintenance expenditures of a solar panel system are roughly $150 to $450 for an inspection once a year.

How long do solar panels last?

Solar panel warranties cover most bases of the already low-maintenance technology. Going solar can translate into serious savings, but with five-figure upfront costs, you'll want to make those panels last as long as possible. Solar panel systems are incredibly durable and require little to no maintenance over their 25+ year lifetime.

What should I do if my commercial solar panels fail?

If you discover any concerning issues in your commercial solar panels, it is always recommended to contact your solar panel contractor. They can immediately arrange an assessment, repair, or replace the damaged components. Avoid letting a minor issue become severe by purchasing new solar product when necessary.

How much does solar panel cleaning cost?

Solar panel cleaning is usually charged per panel, so costs will vary depending on the size of the solar system. Individual panel cleaning costs between $13 - $25 per panel on average. Repairing solar panels depends on the damage and size of the repair. The cost can range from $200-$1,300, though the average cost is around $760.
