What is the main mode of transport in Guernsey?

The primary mode of transport on the island is the motor vehicle. Guernsey has an extensive network of lanes, some of which are distinguished as green lanes under the name 'Ruelle Tranquille', translated to 'quiet street'. Pedestrians, cyclists, and horse riders have priority with the speed limit on these lanes at 15 mph.

Is Guernsey a good place to invest?

Light tax and death duties make Guernsey a popular offshore finance centre for private-equity funds. Guernsey does not have a Central Bank and it issues its own sterling coinage and banknotes. UK coinage and (English, Scottish and Northern Irish-faced) banknotes also circulate freely and interchangeably.

Is Guernsey a tourist destination?

Guernsey is home to Specsavers Optical Group, and Healthspan also has its headquarters in Guernsey. Guernsey has been a tourist destination since at least the Victorian days, with the first tourist guide published in 1834.
