How long does a solar panel warranty last?

A 25-year performance warranty is the industry standard for top-tier solar panel manufacturers. Material warranties can be shorter, and while 10 years is fairly typical, that number can vary by manufacturer. Here is a breakdown of the warranties provided by four of the top solar manufacturers: What Can Void A Solar Panel Warranty?

What types of warranties cover solar panels?

There are two basic types of warranties that cover solar panels. A product warranty protects you from defects in a solar panel stemming from material quality or manufacturing errors. This is also referred to as an equipment or materials warranty.

What is a performance warranty on a solar panel?

A performance warranty guarantees a maximum level of degradation- typically between .25% and .75% - per year so that in 25 years the panel will still have 80-90% of the power output it did in its first year. Performance warranties are important for sizing solar systems to maintain 100% offset for 25 years.

Why are solar panel warranties important?

Solar panel warranties are important to make sure you get the expected electricity savings over time. For example, if your solar energy system is expected to save at least $1,200 per year, a 25-year warranty means you get $30,000 in guaranteed savings. Solar panel warranties also help you qualify for favorable loan conditions.

Do solar companies offer warranties?

Solar companies offer warranties for their solar panels and related equipment since consumers want assurances and guarantees on such a large purchase. However, most solar warranties can be a little confusing for the average person to understand, as they contain complicated technical and legal jargon.

Are solar panel warranties transferable in a home sale?

In most cases, solar panel warranties are transferable to the new owner in a home sale. However, some warranties are restricted to the original owner, so it is crucial to clarify this point with the manufacturer and installer offering the warranty.
