What is a solar RFP?

But first a few key definitions: A Request for Proposal(RFP) is a formal bid document to ask vendors to provide proposals for desired projects, as required by many public agencies (federal, state, local). A solar RFP outlines the photovoltaic (PV) product or service requirements, the contract terms, and bidding process.

What are the requirements for a solar RFP?

Almost all solar RFPs require the provider to secure all of the interconnection arrangements and necessary permits, as well as provide a bid that incorporates these anticipated costs.

What certifications do Solar Contractors need?

When submitting a proposal, a solar contractor must make certain certifications to the federal government, including certifications that the contractor is responsible, registered with SAM and not debarred, suspended or proposed for debarment. The government expects of its contractors the highest integrity and ethics.

Where can I get a solar RFP?

There are a variety of resources available to organizations issuing RFPs for PV arrays, including the American Cities Climate Challenge On-Site Solar Request for Proposals template and the National Renewable Energy Laboratory's (NREL's) Writing Solar Requests for Proposals (RFPs): Lessons from NREL's University PV Implementation Assistance Program.

What happens if a solar contractor is awarded a contract?

Upon an award, the solar contractor is bound to execute the contract and begin performance. If another contractor that supplied a proposal thinks that it had the best value proposal, the contractor can question the government's evaluation process.

How do I write a solar RFP?
