

EU-funded SOLE public event on energy efficiency in public buildings to be held in Jordan. Jan 12 2022.
How will the Act Green awareness campaign be implemented by SOLE partners? What ...

REEE II is part of a larger EUR 90 million programme that seeks to support Jordan's objective to reduce its dependency on energy imports (currently at 95%) by developing Jordan's capacities to generate renewable energy (mainly wind ...

The European Union "Renewable Energy and Energy Efficiency" Programme in Jordan" (REEE II) successfully concluded its Technical Assistance component of Euro 4.8 Million this month. Over the past four years, the Technical Assistance project effectively guided the energy sector and supported key

After the interventions by SOLE project, it is estimated a decrease in emissions of 84t CO₂/year, 131 MWh generated by Renewable Energy Sources (RES) using 84kWp Solar Photovoltaic System. What is the spread of energy efficiency measures in Jordanian schools?

Air Jordan 4 Retro "University Blue" (CT8527-400) este disponibil acum în magazinul True to Sole din Bucuresti si online ? Sneakersi 100% noi si autentici, livrare rapida în România si ...

REEE II is part of a larger EUR 90 million programme that seeks to support Jordan's objective to reduce its dependency on energy imports (currently at 95%) by developing Jordan's capacities to generate renewable energy (mainly wind and solar) and by becoming more energy efficient.

The SOLE Project focuses on raising awareness with regard to efficient energy use in public buildings and, at the same time, it will undergo some energy efficiency interventions in selected pilot buildings across the Mediterranean.

The SOLE Project focuses on raising awareness with regard to efficient energy use in public buildings and, at the same time, it will undergo some energy efficiency interventions in ...

Marar pointed out that renewable energy from wind and solar contributed to 27% of electricity generated in Jordan by the end of 2022, compared to 1% in 2014. He described this as a good opportunity for Jordan to play a leading role in the global transition to clean energy, such as green hydrogen, as a clean and emissions-free fuel.

EU-funded SOLE public event on energy efficiency in public buildings to be held in Jordan. Jan 12 2022.
How will the Act Green awareness campaign be implemented by SOLE partners? What are the results of the 3 knowledge-sharing seminars on the energy performance in public stock buildings collected by SOLE

Andalusian partner in the last months?

Highlighting Jordan's green hydrogen ambitions, Azzam announced plans to produce up to 0.6 million tonnes annually by 2030, scaling up to 3.4 million tonnes by 2050. She also outlined efforts to enhance electric transport infrastructure and expand regional power connectivity to establish a sustainable and efficient energy system.

Thanks to SOLE intervention in Jordan, students of Madaba are about to enjoy an energy upgraded school. While Jordan witnesses a snowstorm, insulating the public school will guarantee thermal comfort to the students of Iskan Faiha school in Mad...

Marar pointed out that renewable energy from wind and solar contributed to 27% of electricity generated in Jordan by the end of 2022, compared to 1% in 2014. He described this as a good opportunity for Jordan ...

The EU's Green Economy program in Jordan supports the country's green transition by promoting climate resilience, energy efficiency, and environmental sustainability. It focuses on building a green, inclusive economy by aligning with Jordan's Green Growth Strategy, targeting sectors such as green energy, water, agriculture, and the ...

Web: <https://www.gennergyps.co.za>