

Since 2010, the place of supply for VAT purposes of electronic supplies to Swiss consumers is Switzerland. This means foreign providers of such supplies may have to register for Swiss VAT, charge and pay local VAT. This includes Liechtenstein, which is in a VAT union with Switzerland.

The Swiss Federal Tax Administration (SFTA) updated on 23 July 2020 its VAT guidelines covering electronically supplied services (ESS) and introduced clear criteria for services to qualify as ESS from a Swiss VAT perspective, as well as examples.
