Is technaus a good company?

Hi Charles, Fantastic to hear your experience with Technaus and in particular Steve, has been excellent. Steve is definitely your man when it comes to sound and objective advice for a solar installation. Steve and the team don't do just one product and try and push it. Every household is different, and all customers needs can be quite varied.

Does technaus provide a warranty?

Technaus Pty Ltd has avoided to provide me its written guarantees for workmanship with terms and conditions. Technaus Solar is a member of Clean Energy Council, but it also fails to provide required documentations as printed on page 17 of Guide to installing solar for household, published by that council.

Are you happy with technaus?

So far, we have been very happy with the Technaus overall. From day one, they have kept in touch and been very helpful. Installation was a breeze. The electricians arrived on time and finished the job nicely without any problems at all. They were polite and efficient. They cleaned up afterwards and removed all rubbish.
