

The photovoltaic panel recruitment scam revealed

Are you getting ripped off when buying solar panels?

Solar is expensive, no matter how you shake it. And savings sound nice, but if you get stuck with an overpriced solar panel system that's underperforming, you're going to save much less. That's why we put together these tips to avoid getting ripped off when buying solar panels -- backed by expert advice.

How many complaints are there about solar-panel salespeople?

Meanwhile, consumer complaints about solar-panel salespeople have skyrocketed in recent years. The FTC received 5,331 complaints containing the phrase "solar panels" between Jan. 1 and Sept. 19 of 2023, up 31% from the entire year of 2022 and up 746% since 2018, when it received just 630 complaints.

Do I need a solar panel if I'm getting a tax credit?

A solar salesperson may warn you that you need to have solar panels installed right away, as the solar tax credit system is close to being discontinued and you won't get that government check if you wait. First of all, this is a complete fabrication.

How do I avoid a crappy solar panel deal?

To avoid a crappy solar panel deal, watch out for these scammy sales tactics. Dealing with door-to-door salespeople is annoying, no matter what they're selling. But the solar industry is full of bad actors, with solar salespeople knocking at your door with misleading offers and overpromised savings.

Can bad actors wiggle their way into home solar panel installation?

Since home solar panel installation is still a relatively young business, there's ample room for bad actors to wiggle their way in to make a go at your wallet.

What should you look out for when choosing a solar panel installation company?

Here are red flags to look out for when selecting a solar panel installation company. Door-to-door sales are innately pushy, and an aggressive salesperson is always a bad sign in business. Door-to-door salespeople are usually trying to make a quick buck and may rush along your decision-making process by making elaborate promises.

Red flags and signs of a solar panel scam. There are several steps in the process of getting solar panels for your home, and there are different red flags you could encounter along the way: Watch out for ads that make wild promises like "free ...

With that demand comes fierce competition within the solar panel market. Scams, schemes and straight-up fraud abound in the dark underbelly of an otherwise light-filled industry. While there are ...

The photovoltaic panel recruitment scam revealed

It's likely a scam. While there are some government-funded solar programs for households that qualify, "going solar" isn't free. Honest businesses will tell you exactly how much it'll cost to get and install solar ...

These scams start with an unexpected phone call, message on social, or even an in-person visit. The so-called official offers you an "energy audit" to reduce your utility costs. Or they might try to sign you up for a "free" program to make your ...

This involves understanding the ins and outs of solar panel technology, staying up-to-date with genuine government incentives, and ensuring your chosen installation company is reputable. When armed with the right ...

Dive into our guide on Solar Panel Scams and learn the savvy ways to spot and sidestep them. Stay informed, stay protected. In the last decade, solar energy has transformed from a luxury to a smart, cost-effective ...

Be aware of solar energy scams - everything from scammers pretending to be affiliated with the government or utility company to businesses misrepresenting the cost of improvements, savings, and financing options.

If you've received an offer for "free solar panels," it could be a scam. Always look for businesses you can trust - like Accredited Businesses using the BBB Seal. Here's what you should know.

Academics predict that a significant volume of end-of-life (EOL) photovoltaic (PV) solar panel waste will be generated in the coming years due to the significant rise in the ...

A call to the company revealed that person was not one of their employees, and they don't send representatives going door to door. Contact info on printed note: Kayla McIver, ...

Some so-called officials even say your utility company already signed you up for the program, so now you need to pay. That is, of course, also a scam. To protect yourself from clean energy ...

Coating material in solar panel, screws and solar chassis board. Carcinogenic: Hydrochloric acid (HCl) ... The life cycle analysis revealed that the PV systems cannot be ...

Installing solar panels on your home has obvious benefits; you passively soak up and store power on a sunny day, which lets you draw less from the public grid and save a few bucks on utility ...

Web: <https://www.gennergyps.co.za>